QUOTE OF THE WEEK

After two program cancellations within 72 hours, we were pleasantly surprised to have Kate Haberl agree to give us the latest on what is happening with Girls On The Run.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Stan - Noted that we will be

operating on a $9,000 deficit budget for 2016/2017. (Hmmm, sound like any countries you know of?) He also challenged each member to purchase or sell one box of Kiwanis Peanuts this year for $50 or more to help to balance the Club's budget. Stan will match each donation and will also match any first time volunteer's collection on Peanut Day or collections of any volunteer working an additional shift.

Bob T. - Is still looking for volunteers to work this Saturday's Color Run. He also noted that the Mary and Martha Dinner crew sent a thank you for our donation and invited us to dinner.

Deborah - Talked to Dr. Bishop at Larsen Elementary School and found that help is still needed to stock the library at that school. This will happen on August 30th and 31st. Contact Deborah if you can help!

Mark - A deuce for daughter, Laura finding work in Boston.

Jim - In honor of one of his favorite places, Boston. (Aside from the crazy drivers.)

HAPPY DOLLARS

Eagle Scout, Jason Easterday, who is amazingly recovering from being electrocuted last week.

Stan - Celebrated his birthday for two weeks. Enjoyed finding a box of 'stuff' from his Club Presidency in 85/86 when the club budget was $5,600.

Bob F. - Had a great week at the fair at the Republican booth.

Kent - Happy to have Kate with us today and declined to tell any stories which might incriminate her.

50/50 DRAWING

Deborah - Happy to have Kate in attendance today. Also for the very productive Budget planning meeting last week.

Jim was the lucky winner.

Kate Haberl from G.O.T.W.
