Happy Dollars today (A reason to start the week on a positive and upbeat note)

Strawberry Fest was fun except when (or because) a participant decided to guess the age of our Kiwanian and decided 90 or 92, and off to Canada fishing; Happy for Tracy making a trip to drop off books Saturday; Thanks to Nathan for the help; Happy for a father/daughter lunch; Strawberry Fest book giveaway was great and Spinning versus Bowling hard to decide; Habitat house has folks qualified; Not having car keys is difficult especially when the spouse decides to be elusive, had a bad experience turn into a free lunch at Applebee's; Surviving last week's flag placements, Key Club, Strawberry Fest and a great father's day with the family; another great father's day in Canton and Marshall; Many happy dollars for all the service hours by the members this last week.

Our Program:

The Corner Farmers' Market

Courtney Dirschell, 2nd Story Marketing

- The Corner Farmers Market is celebrating its third year at the four corners in downtown Coldwater. It starts this Saturday, June 24th and runs through the second weekend in September.
- The event has grown each year with attendance last 4th of July weekend of about 1,000. It averaged about 700 each Saturday. There is a pancake breakfast this weekend in support of the shelter house from 9-11.
- They have local growers and vendors plus this year the Amish baked goods are returning. They expect sweet corn by 4th of July.
- There will be entertainment sponsored by the DDA, Star of the West Milling, Promedica, and Asama Mfg.
- In July they will have a 4 legged friends day, and in August there will be a kids day the Saturday before school starts.
- Courtney reported that local farmers markets put money back into the local communities.
