QUOTE OF THE WEEK

Fires can't be made with dead embers, nor can enthusiasm be stirred by spiritless men. Enthusiasm in our daily work lightens effort and turns even labor into pleasant tasks.

James A. Baldwin

INVOCATION BY

Dave Anderson

AMERICA/PLEDGE LED BY

Jim Voss

SONGS LED BY

Due to the lack of song books Jim chose good ol' number 8, Smile, as our song of the day.

It was announced that Ted Littley received a stent last week and consequently Marilyn was not able to be present today.

HAPPY DOLLARS

Deborah – Babysat for amazing granddaughters.

Ray – For the club's sponsorship of the CHS Girl's Basketball banquet, but no money for U of M.

Bob – Related a Russian joke his wife told him not to tell.

Lori – Successful knee surgery for her sister which meant moving the hospital bed out of her living room.

Denny – Fun visiting friends.

Amy – Great weather over the weekend allowed for kids to play out of doors.

Jim – Didn't have to pick his son up from O'Hare.

Kent – Got to sit between Janine and Amy.

Terry – For the Scouts in attendance.

Robert Wayland – Happy to be there as a visitor.

SPECIAL NOTICE!!!

Next weeks meeting will be held in the auditorium of the Eby Family Center. Amy will be attempting to set us up with a caterer for the meeting.

BIRTHDAY/ANNIVERSARY

Marilyn Littley will be celebrating her birthday the next time she's with us.

AWARDS

Lt. Governor, Jacquie Whidby, presented the club with several awards: Two Round Robins, Key Leader, 100% support of the Michigan Foundation, Distinguished Club Award and an International Distinguished Club Award, and the Service Leadership Program patch.
